ABOUT SATTVIK

DR Group incepted in the year 1985 have been serving the domestic market for over 35 years now. It was the foresightedness of Late Shri Gulab Chand Mittal which sowed the seeds of an ever growing trading house. The legacy was further carried forward by his son Late Shri Vijay Mittal and Shri Ajay Mittal, who jointly continued the saga to the new heights of trading. The sudden death of Shri Vijay Mittal, brought in fresh vibes and talent of the younger generation of the family. With the sheer dedication to excel and serve the best commodity to its esteemed clients the company has been involved in the trading of various agricultural products like sugar, all type of spices, pulses, edible oils and all types of groceries required for Modern catering clients and Institutional food sector business (full basket of raw material for B2B horeca requirements).

Today we are serving most of the clients for HORECA segment in Food industry in Northern India with turnover of more than Rs 150 crores. Our client list includes big shots like Haldirams, Bikanerwala, DS Group (Rajnigandha & Catch), Nirulas, Al Kabeer Foods, Jubilant food works, ICS Catering Service, Priyagold, Hamdard, Nazeer Foods, Heera Sweets, Kiddys Foods, BABA Global, IRCTC, Radisson, BTW, Shetty Sons, Pind Balluchi, ISCKON and the list goes endless.

With expertise gained over several years and a comprehensive infrastructural facility to handle agro products, DR group is geared up to meet the challenges for the wide variations in quantity and the product range that is demanded by the customers to ensure the sustainability in the ever increasing competitive market.

With the latest development and to increase our perfection to counter and cater modern food business keeping food safety instructions on top we have introduced packaging of raw material of raw (whole) spices and pulses in the name of Sattvik. With an all new plush and modern facility in ultimate clean environment excelling minute things before packaging, this facility provides modern packaging of whole spices and pulses in very clean, hygienic environment by HAND PICKING best quality material keeping all FSSAI standards on top.

Right from the procurement of product to its final delivery, the team at DR Group has successfully provided superior quality range of products, to its buyers all over the India especially to those from the "FOOD CATERING SECTOR".

Professionalism, astute commitment and a coherent strategy have been instrumental in the exponential growth of the company. Marking a success step by step today DR Group has come to be known as a 'Group with a difference'.

The team of highly talented and motivated work force has played an important role in procuring raw material in the most competitive price to serve clients in the best possible price.

The sole vision of the company is to attain a consolidated, sustained and independent growth in the domestic market and be a renowned supplier of quality products and services to its esteemed clients. We aim to deliver value to our customers.
